

Computer system license specification

Tacho CLOUD

The Tacho CLOUD license includes:

data processing from driver memory cards according to EC standard 561/2006, analysis of data from driver memory cards according to EC standard 561/2006, processing of data from the digital tachograph according to EC standard 561/2006, analysis of data from digital tachograph according to EC standard 561/2006, import of data from digital tachograph and driver memory card in DDD data format, import data via a mobile application for the Android operating system, complete archive of imported data into the system, compliance with digital tachograph rules, list of offenses by drivers, risk assessment for an individual driver in terms of EC standard rules 561/2006, planning the driver's working hours, automatic notification by email, about the times of downloading data from driver memory cards and digital tachograph, automatic calculation of drivers' salaries according to the data from the digital tachograph, integration with other systems using the API.